RESERVATION FORM TERMS

A signed reservation form to participate in one of Casa Gregorio's culinary programs is a legal and binding contract. Once it is submitted and confirmed, the provisions in the "Terms and Conditions" of this document apply in their entirety.

DEPOSITS/PAYMENT

To secure the booking of your _____ culinary program, full payment is due at booking. Upon receipt of a signed booking form and payment, your reservation will be confirmed.

CANCELLATION

All deposits and final payments are nonrefundable. However, a deposit or final payment may be applied to a future culinary program if cancelled 60 days prior to program commencement. Casa Gregorio recommends purchasing independent travel insurance that covers cancellation due to medical reasons or any conditions covered by the insurance policy. Full refunds will be made if Casa Gregorio should cancel any program at any time before commencement for any reason. Casa Gregorio will make every effort to adhere to any published itinerary, although variances may occur due to availability and/or factors beyond their control.

CERTIFICATION OF HEALTH:

A confirmed booking with accompanying payment certifies that the program participant does not suffer from any condition or disability that could create a hazard or hardship for other program participants. The program participant further understands that health care standards, facilities and services in Italy may differ to those of their country of origin and may even be inadequate for the treatment of certain health conditions.

WAIVER AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY:

I, _____ hereby release, waive, discharge, hold harmless, defend and indemnify Casa Gregorio and its representatives, its officers and employees from any and all claims, actions or losses in case of bodily injury, property damage, wrongful death, loss or otherwise which could arise from my participation in Casa Gregorio activities. Culinary Program participants further agree that they will hold Casa Gregorio harmless in respect of any claims in connection with bookings made by third parties arising from the possible misconduct of other program participants.

I understand that Casa Gregorio reserves the right to take material such as photographs or films from any of its programs and hereby agree that Casa Gregorio may use it for promotional and/or commercial purposes without remuneration to the participants. The program participant further agrees to assign all rights, titles and interest that may arise from the usage of such material.
